

God's Way

Lyrics by Sam Menahem
To the tune of "My Way" by Frank Sinatra
Original lyrics by Paul Anka

And now the end I fear,
I have to face the big transition.
The future's so unclear,
I am afraid, there's no remission.
I've lived a life that's full,
I've helped some folks along the highway
And more, much more than this,
I did it God's way.

Regrets, I've had a few,
I'm not afraid, right now to mention.
I did what I had to do,
Maybe I fudged some tax exemptions.
I planned my charted course,
And then God laughed aloud at my way
And so, I changed my plans,
And did it God's way.

Yes there were times, I'm sure G-d knew,
I was way off, not a good Jew,
But through it all, when I had doubt,
I turned to God to figure out,
Prayed to the Lord and listened well,
And did it God's way!

I've loved, I've laughed, I cried,
I've been fed up; felt I was losing,
And now, as I look up,
I find the cosmic joke amusing
To think, I felt all that,
And may I say, in such a shy way
It wasn't me at all
I did it God's way.

For what is man, what has he got
If not God's love, then he has naught,
To be kind and speak the truth,
Try not to hurt or be uncouth,
The record shows, I learned from my blows,
And did it... God's way11111
